ABOUT ME

I'm a full stack, features oriented, developer passionate about creating web based solutions,

I love problem solving, implement new features, building cutting-edge, accessible web applications leveraging good coding practices and a solid understanding of design and UX | UI principles.

I'm a dedicated, hard-working, adaptable, critical thinker who thrives under pressure with a positive can-do mindset.

I enjoy traveling, reading, Legos, the occasional DIY and of course food and good wine.

Looking for a challenging, demanding work environment to grow as a programmer and as a person.

EXPERIENCE

FULL-STACK DEVELOPER | ASSEMBLER INSTIUTE

June 2023– January 2024

Completed an intensive 7-month Master in Software Development, dedicating over 1200 hours to full stack, real-world oriented projects employing Agile methodologies. This "Learn by doing" approach, combined with pair programming, has been instrumental in developing up-to-date, strong fundamentals in web development. Notable projects include:

- SoundSphere: A music platform reminiscent of Spotify, developed with React.js, TypeScript, Node.js, Express, and MongoDB. Features include music streaming, playlist creation, song uploads, and favourites management, complemented by CI/CD integration.
- GitPeek: A GitHub search tool for repositories and users, built with React.js, TypeScript, Node.js, and GraphQL. Mobile first, unit testing with Jest.
- Movie-Central: A comprehensive movie database platform, leveraging the IMDB API for movie searches, list creation, and watchlist management. Developed using NextJS, ensuring a seamless user experience.

WAITER | HOSPES PALACIO DE LOS PATOS 5*

May 2019 – June 2023

Granada, Spain

- Excelled in high-pressure environments, enhancing team collaboration, communication, and organizational skills within a luxury hospitality setting.

WAITER TO SUPERVISOR | SORRENTO RESTAURANT

Liverpool, England

October 2010 - March 2019

- Advanced from waiter to supervisor, demonstrating leadership, customer service excellence, and effective people management in a fast-paced dining atmosphere.
